The divisions will form on the streets indicated at 12 o'clock M. The signal for the formation of the divisions will be the firing of one gun.

Marshals will be as prompt as possible in the formation of their divisions.

The movement of the column will commence at the firing of the second gun. As that portion of the column on Washington avenue uncovers the streets on which the several divisions are formed, the divisions will move into their proper places in the column.

The line of march will be down Washington avenue, passing in review before the Governor and staff in front of the old Capitol, to Ottawa street, west on Ottawa street to Capitol avenue, north on Capitol avenue. From Capitol avenue to Washington avenue, south on Washington avenue to Ottawa street, east on Ottawa street to Grand street, south on Grand street to Allegan street, from which point the first division will move west on Allegan street to Washington avenue, north on Washington avenue to Michigan avenue, west on Michigan avenue to the new Capitol Grounds. The remainder of the column will continue south from Allegan street on Grand street to Washtenaw street, west on Washtenaw street, thence to its place in the column in the rear of the Civic Division, which will have taken its place immediately in the rear of the First Division.

Arriving at the Capitol Grounds the First Division will be formed in the position indicated in column, by companies closed in mass.

The Civic Division will be conducted to the platform about the speakers' stand.

The Third Division will be formed on the left of the First Division, in column by commanders, closed in mass.

The Fourth Division will move to its position immediately east of the foundation walls of the capitol, and will be formed in close column.

The Fifth Division will be formed at the left of the Fourth Division, in close column.

The procession having arrived on the ground the following will be the order of exercises :

I.

Instrumental Music.

II.

Introductory Address by Gov. JOHN J. BAGLEY.

III.

Prayer by RT. REV. S. A. MCCOSKRY, D. D., LL. D.

IV.

NATIONAL HYMN—America.

My country, 'tis of thee,
 Sweet land of liberty—
 Of thee I sing :
 Land where my fathers died—
 Land of the pilgrims' pride—
 From every mountain's side
 Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
 Land of the noble free,
 Thy name I love :
 I love thy rocks and rills—
 Thy woods and templed hills,
 My heart with rapture thrills,
 Like that above.

Our Father, God, to Thee,
 Author of Liberty—
 To Thee we sing :
 Long may our land be bright
 With Freedom's holy light ;
 Protect us by Thy might,
 Great God our King.

V.

Oration by HON. WILLIAM A. HOWARD.

VI.

Laying of the Corner-Stone by the Grand Lodge F. & A.
 M. of Michigan.

VII.

HYMN—Old Hundred.

With one consent let all the earth
 To God their cheerful voices raise ;
 Glad homage pay with awful mirth,
 And sing before Him songs of praise.

For He's the Lord, supremely good,
 His mercy is for ever sure ;
 His truth, which always firmly stood,
 To endless ages shall endure.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

VIII.

Benediction by REV. NOAH FASSETT.

IX.

Firing of National Salute.

The badge of the Chief Marshal and his aids will be yellow ; of the Marshal and aids of the Military Division, red ; the Knights Templar will appear in the uniform of their order ; the badges of the Marshal and aids of the "Masonic Fraternity," blue ; the Commanderies of I. O. O. F. will appear in the uniform of their order ; the color of the badges of the Marshal and aids of Division of Lodges of I. O. O. F. will be purple.

Marshals of Divisions will have entire control of the formation of their respective Divisions, and of the changes of formation during the time of moving.

The procession will not re-form after the completion of the ceremony of laying the Corner-Stone. The military companies and Commanderies of Knights Templar will move from the ground in charge of their respective company and Commandery commanders.

Detail instructions will be given by the Chief Marshal during the day.

WILLIAM HUMPHREY,
Chief Marshal.
